The Marketplace Movement... 7 Mountains... K.E.Y.S. = NAR

Sunday Adelaja

One of his books is also available in Sweden – translated into Swedish!

The books below have been copied and translated into English from:

<http://rhemacenter.se/> - Rhema Center – Webbshop – November 20-2011

This webbshop has been closed down and can't be seen in 2012... but the reason I still enclose this, is to show you that messages from these self-proclaimed "apostles" has been spread in Sweden for many years...

Pastor utan tårar

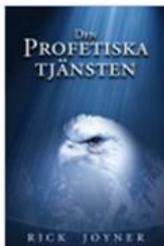

Pastor Without Tears

Author: Sunday Adelaja

Pastor Sunday Adelaja leads the largest charismatic church with 25 000 members. He carries a reformatory message to the church of God today. In the book Pastor without tears Pastor Sunday reveals how we can serve God in a right way.

Den profetiska tjänsten

The Prophetic Ministry

Author: Rick Joyner

What is prophecy? Who shall prophesy? Is it right to seek prophecy? If you refuse to settle for anything less than everything that God has for you ... if you do not let yourself be intimidated by those who claim that God doesn't speak today ... This book will challenge you to know God and hear from Him, in a way that you have never done before!

Regarding the book "Pastor Without Tears" by the Sunday Adelaja:

I read this book BEFORE 2008 – I did not know anything about NAR at that time, nor anything about the severity of the Faith Movement's heresies... I don't remember exactly what the book was about...

BUT it is obvious that Sunday Adelaja is one of the "NAR"/Os Hillman's Change Agents!

His website is also revealing this: <http://www.churchshift.org/> - Church Shift

WARNING: One of Adelaja's books is called "Church Shift" and is being sold on Os Hillman's website where he is promoting all kinds of teachings about 7 Mountains and Marketplace:

http://sv.wikipedia.org/wiki/Emerging_Church - The emerging church, ... is a Christian movement of the late 20th and early 21st century that crosses a number of theological boundaries: participants can be described as Protestant, post-Protestant, Catholic, evangelical[1] post-evangelical, liberal, post-liberal, conservative, post-conservative, anabaptist, adventist,[2] reformed, charismatic, neocharismatic, and post-charismatic. Proponents, however, believe the movement transcends such "modernist" labels of "conservative" and "liberal," calling the movement a "conversation" to emphasize its developing and decentralized nature, its vast range of standpoints, and its commitment to dialogue. Participants seek to live their faith in what they believe to be a "postmodern" society. What those involved in the conversation mostly agree on is their disillusionment with the organized and institutional church and their support for the deconstruction of modern Christian worship, modern evangelism, and the nature of modern Christian community.

Dear Friend,

I believe in pastoring without tears. I believe that every Christian in every church in every community is a minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. This is my conclusion after 14 years of pastoring, two million new converts, 600 church plants in over 35 nations and more than 30,000 members in our Embassy of God Church in Kiev, Ukraine.

When we are Kingdom-addicted and Kingdom-focused on Kingdom principles, the pastors empower, educate and encourage church members, and the church members take the Kingdom of God into the society.

In Ukraine, we have seen a complete change of political processes, just by the Church standing up for Kingdom principles. The principles that are delivering our entire nation from communism and post-communism depression to reshape modern Ukraine will work where you are to bring national transformation.

On February 8, 2008, it was my privilege to launch my first US book containing these Kingdom principles entitled CHURCHSHIFT. This revolutionary book debuted at the SYNERGIZE! Pastors Conference on January 29-31, 2008 in Atlanta, which I was cohosting. This book is accompanied by a workbook that helps local churches affect society and take back their cities and nation for God.

As goes the church, so goes the nation. My goal is to minister a nation-shaping message with the joy of pastoring without tears, help build you and your community, and make our churches more relevant than ever.

KJ = Don't read his books or take part of any of his teachings!

As much information on the Internet can change quickly, I just want to mention that the links in this e-mail worked when it was originally written in Nov 2011.

I do not necessarily agree with everything that is written on the pages that I have linked to - it is exactly the article I've linked to that I want to emphasize.
